WORK EXPERIENCE

Studio Cation Inc. | Remote, LA | 05/2025 - Present

Playable Ads Producer & Strategist | Game Mechanics Designer

- Produce about 40 playable ads per month across 10-20 different mobile game titles, spanning casual and midcore genres in a fast-paced production environment.
- Turn client briefs, game references, competitor examples, and performance feedback into playable concepts, opening hooks, tutorial flows, core mechanics, UI/CTA, and end-card direction.
- Write production-ready playable briefs and GDDs that clearly describe gameplay logic, visual direction, technical notes, and the intended player flow.
- Coordinate production with developers, artists, asset producers, QA, and project stakeholders, keeping tasks, expectations, and creative intent clear from ideation to final build.
- Review HTML playable builds for game feel, gameplay logic, onboarding, UX clarity, visual readability, and ad network readiness; turn feedback into specific revision notes.
- Develop original playable concepts from scratch for client briefs; selected concepts became internal benchmarks for future playable ideas and production approaches.
- Use A/B test learnings, KPI and performance feedback, and competitor research to refine hooks, tutorial pacing, and conversion moments across new playable briefs.
